Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we are to pray, and you are willing to give more than either we desire or deserve: Pour down upon us today the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good gifts which we are not worthy to ask, and all through the mediation of Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, age after age. Amen!

Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart, and confess our sins unto God our Father, asking him, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to grant us forgiveness.

I will perform my vows to you

That which my lips uttered
And my mouth promised when I was in trouble.

* Please refrain from conversation once the prelude begins

† The congregation stands

O most merciful God, since you have given your only-begotten Son to die for me, have mercy on me and for his sake grant me forgiveness of all my sins; and by your Holy Spirit increase in me true knowledge of you and of your will and true obedience to your Word, to the end that by your grace I may come to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. *Silent Prayer. Q. 91. How do the sacraments become effectual means of salvation?

A. The sacraments become effectual means of salvation not from any virtue in them or in him that administers them; but only by the blessing of Christ, and the work of his Spirit in them that by faith receive them.
