Pentecost Season

August 1, 2005

Welcome

If you are visiting our church today, we welcome you to our worship service and Christian community. Please find the black registration folder at the end of the pew and help us serve you better by leaving your name and contact information. We promise to keep this information confidential and only use it for personal contact with you and your family. Please join us downstairs for coffee after the service.

We have Christian education classes for all ages which meet after the service at 11:00 AM. The “visitor’s card” on the table in the foyer will help you find the meeting place for your child’s class. Join us this evening at 6:00 PM for our evening service of prayer and Bible teaching.

If you are unfamiliar with our form of worship, please feel free to speak with one of the Pastors or Elders. We have resources that will help you understand the biblical rationale for why we worship the way we do. Pastor Meyers’s book The Lord’s Service: The Grace of Covenant Renewal Worship (Canon Press, 2003) is also available on our book table. Visit our website for articles, essays, and other helpful information on our worship and life at Providence: www.prpc-stl.org

The Lord’s Supper is observed every Sunday as the climax of covenant renewal worship. We invite to the Lord’s Table all those who are baptized disciples of Jesus Christ, under the authority of Christ and his body, the Church. By eating the bread and wine with us as a visitor, you are acknowledging to the elders of this local church that you are in covenant with God as an active member of a congregation in which the Gospel is faithfully confessed, taught, and believed. You also acknowledge that you are a sinner, without hope except in the sovereign mercy of God, and that you are trusting in Jesus Christ alone for salvation. If you have any doubt about your participation, please speak to one of the elders or the pastor before or after the service. Note: The middle circle of cups in each tray contains grape juice, the larger outer ring contains wine. (The grape juice has a darker color than the wine.)

Jesus Christ - Conqueror (Front Cover)

The traditional monograms IC and XC are ancient Latin abbreviations for Jesus (IHCŌYC, a Latinized form of his Greek name) and Christ (XRICTOC). NIKA means Victor or Conqueror. Jesus Christ was born to conquer sin, death, and the Devil. The cross in the center of the world reminds us that Jesus has conquered by means of his suffering, death, and resurrection. Jesus now reigns because he died for us.

Today our Pulpit and Table paraments are red. This color symbolizes the fiery Spirit, resting on the heads of the Apostles on the day of Pentecost in Acts 2. It is also the color of judgment & martyrdom.

The Lord’s Service Explained

The Call to Worship

Our Lord’s Day begins with the Pastor reading a summons from God’s Word inviting us to draw near to him. Our worship is always a response to God’s gracious summons. When you hear the call to worship you must remember that it is the voice of the Lord himself calling us through the Pastor. He is calling us to join him in his house.

In Leviticus chapter 1, when the Lord began his instructions on how the people of Israel were to approach him in worship, we read that he “called Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting” (Lev. 1:1). The Lord was in his “house” and called Moses to come to the doorway and hear how he and all the people of Israel might “draw near” to him. It’s all about an invitation into the Lord’s house. The whole “sacrificial system” is God’s way of qualifying his people for fellowship with him in his home.

The words translated as “offering” and “bring an offering” really have nothing to do with “offering” God something. The Hebrew verb and noun used here have to do with “drawing near.” There are things that are indeed “offered” as “tribute” within the sacrificial system. But the word most often mis-translated as “offering” really means “that which is brought near.” So all of what we call the “sacrifices” are properly, if somewhat awkwardly designated “near bringings.” The point is not what we might give or offer to God, but rather how God provides a way for his people to come near to him, to enter into his house to commune with him. The worshipper is able to draw near “in the animal.” What happens to the animal happens to him spiritually.

With us, of course, we no longer approach God by means of animal sacrifices. Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, has fulfilled this sacrificial pathway into God’s presence. He has died, rose from the dead, and ascended into heaven. Now “in Christ” we have access to God’s heavenly throne and festal Table. When God calls us to draw near to him at the beginning of the worship service we should “with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need” (Heb. 4:16).

A Prayer of Preparation: Almighty God, who throughout the ages has graciously invited your people to draw near and commune with you, grant we pray, that as we hear your life-giving voice we may respond with eager expectation to your summons to enter your house and feast with you; we ask this through Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Day — August 7, 2005

Pentecost Season

Preparation For Worship: Psalm 97

Organ - Mrs. Joanie Harris

Welcome & Announcements - Pastor Jeffrey Meyers

The Entrance

Silent Preparation

Call to Worship: Psalm 97:1-2, 13

Pastor Jeffrey Meyers

†Hymn #50 "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty!"

Trinity Hymnal

†Salutation & Responsive Scripture

Pastor: In the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit!

Congregation: Amen!

Matthew 28:19

The Lord be with you!

Ruth 2:4

And also with you!

I rejoiced when they said to me, "Let us go into the house of the Lord!"

Our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem! Psalm 122:1

†Pastor: Let us pray to the Lord:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, you are slow to anger, and full of mercy, welcoming sinners who return to you with penitent hearts, receiving in your loving embrace all who come home to you; seat us at your bountiful table of grace, that, with all your children, we may feast with delight on all that satisfies our hunger and thirst for righteousness; through your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, age after age. Amen!

The Lord Purifies Us

†Pastor: Let us humbly bow our heads before the Lord and confess our sins.

O Lord, my heart is not lifted up;

Psalm 131:1-2

My eyes are not raised too high.

I do not occupy myself with things,

Too great and too marvelous for me.

But I have calmed and quieted my soul,

Like a weaned child with its mother.

Almighty God, my heavenly Father, you are rich in mercy to all those who call upon you; hear me as I come to you humbly confessing my sins, and imploring your mercy and forgiveness. I have broken your holy laws by my deeds and by my words, and by the sinful affections of my heart. I confess before you my disobedience and ingratitude, my pride and willfulness, and all my failures and shortcomings toward you and toward my family and friends. Have mercy upon me, most merciful Father; and of your great goodness grant that I may hereafter serve and please you in newness of life; grant me this, I pray, through the mediation of Jesus Christ my Savior and Lord. Silent Prayer. Amen!

†Pastor: Now lift up your heads and hear the good news . . . !

Our heavenly Father, in his great mercy, has given his only Son to die for you, and for his sake forgives you all your sins; wherefore as Christ's minister and in his authority, I declare that all of your sins are forgiven, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Congregation: Amen!

Ministry to Overseas US Sailors

Care Packages for Sailors—Providence will be sending care packages to a dozen sailors stationed aboard the USS Rodney M. Davis. These men are likely not believers and the ship offers no chaplain or worship service during their current seven month deployment. Some of these men have not received any letters or packages from home. Up through August 21, a collection box will be sitting by the WIC table. Please bring candy, small handheld games, card games, hackie sacks (one guy really wants one!), or anything else that will mail well. (Last week, we said to bring chocolate, but it turns out that chocolate doesn't mail well.) We will be including sermon CD's and Christian pamphlets in all of these boxes. Money for postage is also needed.

Letters for Sailors—Thank you to everyone who picked up a name of a sailor last week and have already sent cards or letters! Another stack of addresses is back on the WIC table today. If you didn't get a name and would like to send a letter to a sailor, please pick up one of those information sheets.

Where Did This List of Names Come From?—The USS Rodney M. Davis is the ship that Jeff Carter is deployed on. Jeff is the husband of Crystal Carter and brother of Bryan Carter. This is a great way to open the door and share the gospel and Christian love to these men, some of which have absolutely no interest in anything pertaining to Christianity. If you would like more information, please contact Crystal Carter at (636) 938-4936.

SUNDAY SCHOOL—HANLEY, ANGIE ANDERSON, BARB HOOVER

SUNDAY EVENING—MCKINNEY, SMITH

Westminster Confession Sunday School Class—The Westminster Confession of Faith (WCF) is a public summary of what we as Presbyterians believe the Bible teaches about the most important questions in this life and the next. From this perspective seeking an understanding of the Westminster Standards is like studying the map of a city in order to find our way around. Knowledge of the Westminster Standards will help us understand the major teachings of the Scriptures and therefore also help us live in God's world according to His gracious intentions for us. Today Pastor Meyers will be continuing to teach from Chapter VII of the Confession "On the Covenant."

This Week at Providence

being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made:
Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven,
and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary,
and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried;
and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
and ascended into heaven, and sits on the right hand of the Father.

And he shall come again with glory
to judge both the living and the dead
whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
The Lord, and Giver of Life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified;
who spoke by the prophets.

And I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen!

Prayer

†We Recite God's Holy Standard for Living

Matthew 5:2-12

Jesus opened his mouth and taught them, saying:

Blessed are the poor in spirit,

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn,

For they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,

For they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,

For they shall be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,

For they shall receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart,

For they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,

For they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness sake,

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you

And utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

Rejoice and be glad for your reward is great in heaven,
For so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.
